Founded in 1949, the Washington Psychiatric Society (WPS) is a professional, non-profit medical specialty organization representing 900 psychiatrists, including practitioners and students, who specialize in the diagnosis and treatment of mental illness.

WPS covers the National Capital Area with regional chapters representing the District of Columbia, Suburban Maryland (Montgomery and Prince George's Counties) and Northern Virginia (the Cities of Alexandria, Fairfax, and Falls Church and Arlington and Fairfax Counties), and is a District Branch of the internationally recognized American Psychiatric Association (APA).

WPS offers several opportunities to connect with its 900 members including advertising in the magazine and newsletter on the WPS Website and through sponsorships and exhibits throughout the year at WPS events and conferences.
